Hope Group Guidelines

General Guidelines

- Utilize Robert's Rules of Order as modified for AA meeting in conduction Group Conscience and Steering Committee meetings.
- Suggested sobriety requirements for chairing meetings is 90 days except for newcomer's meetings which is 2 years.
- Prudent Reserve is set at $10,000.00.
- No smoking or vaping during AA meetings.
- Hope Group Guidelines must be approved by Group Conscience.

Steering Committee Roles & Responsibilities

- Steering Committee is comprised of the elected Service Position Representatives outlined below.
- At steering committee meetings, questions related to group practices, business functions, and other group issues often are tackled first by the steering committee (or group service committee), which goes to the group for its members' group-conscience decision.
- Steering Committee meets at regularly scheduled times as agreed to by a majority of the Steering Committee members.
- Service Position Representatives are elected to two year terms. To ensure continuity as well as spirit of rotation:
 - Group A Service Positions' terms start in January of even years and run through December of odd years.
 - Group B Service Positions' terms start in January of odd years and run through December of even years.
- Service Position Representatives shall be elected using the "Third Legacy Procedure" as defined in the AA Service manual. In the event that a Service position is vacated mid-term and a replacement is elected, the newly elected representative shall serve the remainder of the term.
- Committee members should possess character qualities that mark a good trusted servant (and a good A.A.): patience, understanding, and a firm determination "to place principles before personalities."

Steering Committee Roles & Responsibilities (Continued)

- In the event that a Service Position Representative fails to represent the Hope Group in two consecutive business meetings by not performing their duties as defined below, they can be removed from office by a majority vote of the Steering Committee. Business meetings are defined as Group Conscience, Steering Committee, District, and Intergroup meetings and Area Service Conferences.
- Service Positions Representatives are elected by the Group Conscience.
- Steering Committee is empowered to authorize the Treasurer in up to $250.00 for Hope Group or to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers within AA as a whole that are not in the approved budget without going to Group Conscience for approval.
- A quorum required to conduct a Steering Committee meeting is defined as the majority of the Service Positions for the Hope Group.

Hope Group Guidelines

Group A Service Positions

Chair - Suggested sobriety 1 years

- Attend and preside over all steering committee and group conscience meetings using Roberts Rules of Order as a guideline for format and procedures.
- Collect agenda items from steering committee and Hope Group members and condense into an agenda for business meetings.
- Coordinate activities with other group officers – and with those members who assume the responsibilities for other vital functions.

General Service Representative (GSR) - Suggested sobriety 2 years.

What is a GSR? GSRs work via the district and area committees. The GSR is the group's link with the general service conference through which US and Canadian groups share their experience and voice AA's collective conscience. Sometimes called "the guardians of the traditions" GSRs become familiar with AA's third legacy – our spiritual responsibilities to give service freely.

- Attend all steering committee and group conscience meetings and provide GSR report in verbal form.
- Attend all District 22 meeting, representing the Hope Group, and report back to Steering committee and group conscience meetings.
- Attend all SWTA68 Area Assemblies and workshops, representing the Hope Group, and report back to steering committee and group conscience meetings.
- In the event that they cannot represent the Hope Group at the district and area level, they are responsible for ensuring the Hope Group is represented, working first with the Alternate GSR.
- Keep group members informed about general service activities.
- Serve as the group contact and receive and share with their groups all mail from District area and the general service office, including newsletters.
- GSRs may also assist their groups in solving a variety of problems, especially those related to the traditions.
- They should possess the character qualities that mark a good, trusted servant of any sort: patience, understanding, and a firm determination "to place principles before personalities."
- GSR should hold no other offices in any group at any level.
